

SCRA will begin accepting contribution commitments on January 4, 2016 at 9:00 am.

There is no minimum contribution amount for the Industry Partnership Fund. A single South Carolina contributor can claim as a credit against state income taxes, insurance premium taxes and/or certain license fees 100% of an amount contributed up to a maximum credit of $2,000,000. The aggregate limit is $6,000,000.

Only commitment requests submitted through the web-based form will be considered as eligible for certification as qualified contributions.

Each form represents one individual commitment.

* TOTAL ANNUAL COMMITMENT

Amount - Whole Number only (no commas, decimals, or dollar sign)

Contribution commitments are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis as specified by law.

No commitment requests will be accepted in person, through email, phone, fax or mail, or by any other means other than the online form process.

Commitment amounts must be confirmed as eligible for certification by SCRA before qualified contributions can be accepted. You will be notified by an SCRA representative regarding the status of your expressed commitment.

SCRA nor any of its affiliates or any of the officers, employees, representatives or other agents of SCRA or any such affiliate have provided or will provide (i) any representation or warranty or advice regarding the position of any court or the South Carolina Department of Revenue or Internal Revenue Service in relation to any tax or other benefits or qualifications or limitations or results which may be related to the Contribution Amount, or (ii) any legal or other advice whatsoever.

Waiver-Acknowledgement

WAIVER AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF OR ON BEHALF OF CONTRIBUTOR RELATING TO INDUSTRY PARTNERSHIP FUND CONTRIBUTION

The contributor, in committing to make a contribution to the Industry Partnership Fund at SCRA, does hereby authorize SCRA's disclosure to the South Carolina Department of Revenue, Internal Revenue Service, and other persons and entities to whom or which the SCRA deems it necessary or appropriate to make disclosures of the contributor's identity and the amount and date of any contribution by the contributor to the Industry Partnership Fund. It is the contributor's understanding that there may be a subsequent process pursuant to which the SCRA will accommodate a desire by the contributor for the contributor's name to be listed in a particular way on the SCRA's website, or for the contributor's name not to be listed on the SCRA's website or otherwise publicly disclosed.

The contributor hereby acknowledges (i) that neither SCRA nor any of its respective affiliates or any of the officers, employees, representatives or other agents of SCRA or any of its affiliates has provided or will provide (A) any representation or warranty or advice to the contributor relating to the law, or the position of any courts or the South Carolina Department of Revenue or Internal Revenue Service, in relation to any tax or other benefits or qualifications or limitations or results which may be related to such contribution, or (B) any legal or other advice whatsoever, and (ii) that the contributor has, as necessary or desired, sought and obtained competent advice and counsel from independent third parties of the undersigned's own choosing regarding any and all matters relating to such contribution, including, but not limited to, tax or other benefits or qualifications or limitations or results which may be related to such contribution, and regarding any legal or other matters relating to such contribution.

If a representative, officer, or employee of the contributor is making a commitment on behalf of the contributor to make a contribution to the Industry Partnership Fund, such representative, officer or employee does hereby represent and warrant that such representative, officer or employee is legally authorized by the contributor to agree to this waiver and acknowledgement on behalf of and thus bind the contributor.
